Mobilizing faith communities in ending homelessness

Michael Shapcott, Director
The solution to homelessness... ...is homefullness
“…basic human needs are organized into a hierarchy of relative prepotency.”

- Abraham Maslow, 1943
Housing and supports: Necessary but not sufficient!

“Home. Homelessness. Longing for home. Our is a culture of displacement, exile and homelessness. Socioeconomic homelessness is growing with many people seeking adequate housing. Ecological homelessness is increasing, with its sense of alienation from a degraded and defiled earth. And a profound spiritual homelessness pervades postmodern culture…”

- Steven Bouma-Prediger + Brian Walsh, Beyond Homelessness
Home-building is more than:

- public policy debate;
- complex financing;
- proper land use planning;
- construction technology;
- facilities management.

☑️ morals,

☑️ moral purpose,

☑️ moral virtue.
God created human beings in God’s own image; in the image of God they were created...

Namaste (in Hindi): I bow to the divine in you

Genesis 1:27
From many faiths, a common understanding:

Reciprocity and belonging are the basis of moral purpose and virtue
“The claim of the Christian Church to make its voice heard in matters of politics and economics is very widely resented…”

Archbishop of Canterbury
William Temple, 1941
Lazarus and the rich man (Dives)
“There once was a rich man, who used to dress in purple and the finest linen, and feasted sumptuously every day...”
“…At his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, who was covered with sores. He would have been glad to satisfy his hunger with the scraps from the rich man’s table.

Dogs used to come and lick his sores…”
“…One day the poor man died and was carried away by the angels to be with Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried [and then] in Hades, where he was in torment…”
Why did Dives end in torment?

Eleanor Roosevelt...
Universal Declaration of Human Rights begins:

“Whereas recognition of the inherent dignity and of the equal and inalienable rights of all members of the human family is the foundation of freedom, justice and peace in the world…”

“Whereas disregard and contempt for human rights have resulted in barbarous acts which have outraged the conscience of mankind, and the advent of a world in which human beings shall enjoy freedom of speech and belief and freedom from fear and want has been proclaimed as the highest aspiration of the common people…”
Article 25 of the UDHR:

“Everyone has the right to a standard of living adequate for the health and well-being of himself and of his family, including food, clothing, housing and medical care and necessary social services, and the right to security in the event of unemployment, sickness, disability, widowhood, old age or other lack of livelihood in circumstances beyond his control.”
Canadian housing and homelessness superhero: John Peters Humphrey
“Good housing at a reasonable cost is a social right of every citizen of this country... This must be our objective, our obligation, our goal.”

Hon Ron Basford, federal housing minister

Legislation, funding + programs: Over the next two decades, more than 600,000 good quality, healthy and affordable non-profit / co-op homes were built.
UN Special Rapporteur Leilani Farha:

From housing strategy to programs to home.
“A key obligation in the international right to adequate housing is to “prioritize those most in need”… those without housing and precariously housed must be first served... The federal government promised [to reduce] chronic homelessness by 50%… chronic homelessness accounts for less than 15% of homelessness. This means only half of 15% of those currently homeless or who enter homelessness over the next ten years will be housed. The vast majority are condemned to homelessness…”
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OPEN LETTER URGES PRIME MINISTER TO MAKE GOOD ON HIS COMMITMENT TO THE RIGHT TO HOUSING

OTTAWA (August 14, 2018) - At a press conference in Ottawa today advocates released an open letter to Prime Minister Trudeau signed by over 170 organizations and prominent Canadians urging the Prime Minister to make good on his commitment to the right to housing by enshrining that right in upcoming National Housing Strategy legislation.

The letter was penned by Amnesty International Canada, Campaign 2000: End Child and Family Poverty in Canada, Canada Without Poverty, the Canadian Alliance to End Homelessness, housing and homelessness researcher Emily Paradis, and the Social Rights Advocacy Centre. Supported by the UN Special Rapporteur on the right to housing, the letter outlines key requirements of right to housing legislation consistent with international human rights law.
1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights is ‘a landmark in the history of moral consciousness.’

Dr Rowan Williams, 2012
[We need to] “reconnect thinking about human rights and religious convictions about human dignity and human relatedness, how we belong together… rights are a crucial way of working out what it is for people to belong together…”

Archbishop of Canterbury Rowan Williams, 2012
“The individualistic gospel taught us to see the sinfulness of every human heart… But it has not given us an adequate understanding of the sinfulness of the social order and its share in the sins of all individuals within. It has not invoked faith in the will and power of God to redeem the institutions of human society…”

- Walter Rauschenbusch, 1918
“Shout aloud without restraint; lift up your voice like a trumpet. Declare to my people their transgression, to the house of Jacob their sins... Buildings long in ruins will be restored by your own kindred and you will build on ancient foundations; you will be called the rebuilder of broken walls, and restorer of houses in ruins.”

Isaiah 58:1,12
1) Homelessness does not occur in a social or political vacuum.

2) The events that make people homeless are initiated and controlled by other people.

3) The primary purpose of these activities is not to make people homeless.

4) Homelessness occurs as a side effect.

OECD - Growing Unequal - 2008
State of Homelessness in Canada - 2014

Over the past 25 years...
- Canada's population increased by almost 30%.
- Annual national investment in housing has decreased by over 46%.
- Federal spending on low-income housing (per capita) dropped from $115* to $60.* Figure adjusted for inflation.
Bringing morality to public policy

“The charge against our social system is one of injustice. The banner so familiar in earlier unemployed or socialist processions – ‘Damn your charity; we want justice’ – vividly exposes the situation… If the present order is taken for granted…, charity from the more or less fortunate would seem virtuous and commendable; to those for whom the order itself is suspect or worse, such charity is blood-money…The Church must announce Christian principles and point out where the existing social order is in conflict with them.”

- William Temple, 1941
After concerted advocacy, federal promises of substantial new investment in housing and homelessness...
National Housing Strategy Targets

- 530,000 households removed from housing need
- 100,000 new housing units created representing 4x as many units built under federal programs from 2005 to 2015
- 300,000 existing housing units repaired and renewed representing 3x as many units repaired and renewed under federal programs from 2005 to 2015
- 385,000 households protected from losing an affordable home and another 50,000 benefiting from an expansion of community housing
- 50% reduction in estimated number of chronically homeless shelter users

Investments under the National Housing Strategy vs. Baseline Housing Investments

A $40 Billion Once-in-a-Generation Joint Investment

- Housing Rights Are Human Rights
- National Housing Co-Investment Fund and Federal Lands
- Federal Community Housing Initiative
- Federal-Provincial/Territorial Housing Partnership

Canada Community Housing Initiative

- Distinctions-Based Indigenous Strategies with funding in addition to the $40 billion National Housing Strategy funding
- Homelessness Programming
- Improving Homeownership Options for Canadians
- Evidence-Based Housing: Research, Data and Demonstrations
“What’s missing is a practical community-based approach that shifts the focus from managing homelessness, to a system focused on ending it. We need to move from crisis responses (like shelters and soup kitchens) to solutions - permanent, appropriate, safe and affordable housing with the support necessary to sustain it.”

A Plan, Not a Dream: Canadian Alliance to End Homeless
We believe homelessness is a national emergency requiring urgent and immediate action.

The time has come to stop managing homelessness, and start ending it.

We are dedicating ourselves to taking action.
Our guiding principles start with:
Housing is a right for all Canadians

Housing First
Permanent, safe, appropriate and affordable housing happens first and fast. We believe housing is a right for all Canadians.

Knowing who’s out there
Every homeless person is known by name…

Tracking our progress
Local teams and national campaign will use regularly collected, person-specific data…

Improving local systems
We will seek to build coordinated housing and support systems…

Resolutely focused on our mission
We are not interested in credit or blame… only in achieving our objective and ending homelessness.

Taking action
We favour action over perfection and will find a way to meet our objectives…
20,000 HOMES CAMPAIGN

The 20,000 Homes Campaign is a national change movement focused on ending chronic homelessness in 20 communities and housing 20,000 of Canada's most vulnerable homeless people by July 1, 2020.
